

PINEHURST TRACE SOLICITATION POLICY

No door-to-door solicitation and no hand-delivered solicitation or notices of events or available services are permitted in Pinehurst Trace except those authorized and distributed on behalf of the Association. This includes the monthly calendar and PTHA Newsletter as well as other announcements of events, bulletins and/or notices from the Board and PTHA.

Group presentations for services and/or products which provide educational or informative values to the residents may be offered upon approval of the Board of Directors. Such presentations must be made by a qualified representative of a recognized organization. The presenter is not to attempt to follow up with residents unless a request is made by a resident for a personal presentation in the resident's home or a location away from the clubhouse.

ADDITIONAL POLICIES

- The Pinehurst Trace Telephone Directory is a private in-house publication for the convenience of residents only. Any use of this directory for commercial purposes is not permitted.
- No outside organization or club may use our clubhouse for meetings, even if members of our association belong to that club or organization.
- Use of the clubhouse for commercial purposes must be approved by the PTHA Board of Directors.
